The World's Greatest small-town film festival is in its 22nd year! Often referred to as the "Sundance of the Sierra", the Nevada City Film Festival puts an emphasis on fiercely independent cinema that showcases innovative, progressive and exciting new voices in film. In 2019, NCFF was named for the second time by Moviemaker Magazine as one of the top 50 film festivals in the world worth the submission fee for filmmakers. In 2020, NCFF was named by USA Today as the #3 Best Festival in the US.

This year's films are available to view with the Festival Pass ($95) or on a per-movie basis ($11 per ticket)!

From July 18-20, Nevada County youth took part in "Acting Up!", a theatre workshop presented by Bright Futures For Youth and Nevada County Arts Council.
High school students were guided in the art of using theatre to present and discuss social issues relevant to them. Nevada City's own Vice Mayor, Daniela Fernandez, taught the class. Everyone enjoyed themselves and did wonderfully!

Workshops such as these are essential to building confidence in our local youth, and giving them the courage and tools to express themselves.

This month, Art Works Gallery hosts its 2nd Saturday Spotlight event on August 13th from 1 to 4 pm!

We're especially excited, because it will feature river painter artist (and Arts Council member) Denise Wey! She's a master of her craft, and she'll be doing a live painting demonstration.

Denise Wey is a painter, teaching-artist and long-term resident of Nevada County. Her vibrant, large-format contemporary paintings of the Yuba River grace many homes in the county and beyond. Denise was awarded The Union's 2021 "Best Visual Artist of Nevada County" and was recently honored to have her "Poppies On The Yuba" painting chosen to represent Nevada County on our local buses!

Denise has a passion not only for painting, but also for teaching. Generations of children have blossomed as artists under her loving and enthusiastic guidance, and some have gone on to become professional artists, themselves.

Many adults have been introduced to the joy of painting and drawing in Denise's classes. She continues to teach classes in person and live online in Zoom. Find these classes at www.denisewey.com.
